The Academic Board may invite any other officer of the University, or any other person, to attend for a specified item of a meeting or to attend a specified meeting, to assist the Academic Board in its deliberations.

4.5 Attendance of observer

- (1) The Academic Board may permit the attendance of an observer, whether from within the University or from an external organisation, at any of its meetings.
- (2) Unless the Chair of the Academic Board determines otherwise, an observer does not have the right to participate in a meeting of the Academic Board.

Part 5 - General

5.1 Establishment of committees

- (1) The Academic Board may establish one or more committees to assist it in the performance of its functions.
- (2) The Academic Board is to review the constitution of each committee annually to consider whether the committee should continue and, if so, whether any changes are required to the functions, membership or methods of operation of the committee.

5.2 Establishment of working parties

- (1) The Academic Board may set up working parties to undertake particular tasks in relation to a nominated activity. The composition of a working party may include persons other than members of the Academic Board, and may include persons who are external to the University.
- (2) A working party's role is advisory.

5.3 Academic Board forums

The Academic Board may conduct Academic Board forums on issues considered by the Board to be topical and of particular importance to the University.

Note: Academic Board forums are the principal way in which the Academic Board involves the entire University community in the expression of opinions and the conveyance of views to the management and the Council.

5.4 Reporting

The Academic Board is to report to the Council by way of its minutes and at such other times and in such other forms as requested by the Council.

5.5 Review of performance

The Academic Board is responsible for annually reviewing -

- (a) its own performance, and advising the Council on the outcome of this review;
- (b) the performance of its members; and
- (c) the performance of its committees.

5.6 Servicing

The Director, Secretariat and Council Secretary is to appoint an Academic Board Secretary with responsibility for the secretariat support of the Academic Board and the Academic Board Executive.
